(3) That all funds belonging to or received by any parish, municipality, school board, drainage or sub-drainage district, public board, commission or body created by special or general act of the General Assembly of the State of Louisiana, not required under existing laws to be held in the custody or possession of the State Treasurer, shall be deposited by the police jury, municipal council, commissioners, or other proper authority, as the case may be, in such bank or banks in the State of Louisiana as shall have been selected, in the manner hereinafter provided, as the fiscal agency of the depositing authority, preferably in one or more banks located within the parish or municipality from which said funds have been collected,—subject however, to the exception contained in Section No. 8 of this Act.

The bonds so furnished as security shall be deposited with the State Treasurer or with the treasurer of the authority letting such deposits, who shall receipt therefor to the depositing bank. The amount of said security shall be equal to the average amount of the deposits of the State of Louisiana or the other depositing authority as the case may be, as shown by the books of the State or of such other authority for the previous year. If the said fund shall arise from some subdivisions, board or commission which has not previously had any funds to deposit, the amount of security to be furnished for the first year shall be equivalent to 60% of the amount of the deposits and shall thereafter be equal to the average amount of such deposit as shown by the books of such sub-division, board or commission as hereinabove provided.

(2) The fiscal agencies and depository bank may, at their option in lieu of depositing bonds as provided in the preceding paragraph, furnish the indemnity bond of a duly authorized surety company conditioned for the safe-keeping and return of such deposits and the payment of the interest thereon, in a sum equal to the average amount of deposits determined as hereinbefore provided, provided that no surety company shall be accepted as surety on any bond for any one bank for a greater sum than 10 p. c. of the capital and surplus of such surety company; and provided further that such bank or banks as afore-

One copy of such circular and of this Act shall be mailed to each of the banks domiciled in this State and shall be published in one or more newspapers located in the City of New Orleans and in the Parish and municipality in which the depositing authority is domiciled, and a copy shall be deposited with the Governor, together with a list of the banks to which the circular has been sent. Such circular shall invite bids for deposits, subject to the terms of this act, a copy of which shall accompany each circular.

(2) All banks desiring to become fiscal agencies or depositories of the State of Louisiana or of any subdivision or board thereof, shall make application in writing to the Board of Liquidation or to the proper authority in the particular case, and shall signify therein their willingness to accede to all the terms and conditions of this act, and shall attach to said application, a sworn statement of the condition of the bank on the first of the month prior to the date of such application, and shall state therein, the portion of such deposit in the City of New Orleans, or in the particular congressional districts as the case may be for which it is making its bids, and the rate of interest which it is willing to pay thereon. Said applications and the statements of the banks and all memoranda relating thereto shall remain sealed until the date specified in the circular, at which time the same shall be opened in the presence of a quorum of the Board of Liquidation or of the proper authority in the particular case, and shall be examined, and the said fiscal agencies and depositories shall then be selected and notified of such selection.

(3) All the bids and applications received, as well as the sworn statements, shall be filed for future reference as part of the proceedings of the Board of Liquidation or the proper authority in the particular case. Police juries shall not, under this Section, be compelled to issue said circulars to and to invite bids from banks domiciled outside of the limits of their respective parishes, nor shall the municipalities, Boards or commissions be compelled to issue such circulars to and invite bids from Banks domiciled outside of the limits of the Parishes wherein they are respectively domiciled, but they all shall have the right to issue such circulars to and invite bids from Banks domiciled outside of their respective parishes.”

That it shall be the duty of the Board of Liquidation and of all authorities having the letting of the public funds to use all reasonable and proper means to secure to the State the best terms and the highest rate of interest consistent with the safe keeping and prompt repayment of the funds when demanded, and to let such funds to the highest bidder therefor consistent with the safety of such funds.

Section 8. That the Board of Liquidation of the State of Louisiana and any of the Boards or Commissions thereof and any Parish, School or Road District and any other authority having the right to deposit public funds which may have bonds for sale may, in order to effect a prompt and satisfactory sale of such bonds, deposit the proceeds of such bonds until used and the proceeds of the tax voted to pay the interest and principal of such bonds, and such amounts as may be reserved for the sinking fund required by such bonds, in any bank or banks located in the State of Louisiana which may purchase the said bonds, upon such terms and conditions including security as may be mutually agreed upon as a condition of, and part of the consideration for the purchase of such bonds; provided the distribution of the balance of the State's funds as provided in Section 3 paragraph 1 of this Act shall not be changed.

Section 9. When a period is fixed at which such bonds shall begin to mature, the total amount of indebtedness shall be divided among the number of years in which payments are to be made and the principal to be paid each year, fixed at such amount that when the total annual interest is added thereto the amount to be paid each year shall be as nearly equal and uniform as possible. Such tax may be levied and extended upon the assessment roll at any time prior to the final collection of the taxes for that particular year. If the authority herein authorized to levy and assess such tax should fail, neglect or refuse to do so before the completion of the assessment rolls, the Auditor of Public Accounts shall be authorized and it shall be his duty to name the rate of such tax and order same extended upon the assessment rolls and collected.

(Maturity of Bonds Must Be Fixed, S. 28, A. 256, '10.)

(Inheritance Tax; How Paid and Distributed, S. 3, A. 45, '04.)

In all cases where the inheritance tax appears to be due, it shall be the duty of the administrator, executor, or other officer in charge of the succession, or of the heir to pay over to the Tax Collector of the parish where the succession is opened the full amount of said inheritance tax and to present the receipt to the judge before obtaining a discharge or of being put in possession of the estate; the surety on the bond of the administrator, executor or other officer in charge of the estate shall be liable in solido with the officer for the full amount of the inheritance tax; such taxes shall be distributed to the several parishes in accordance with Article 248 of the Constitution.

NOTE.—All inheritance taxes should be remitted to the State Treasurer, who will credit same to the Current School Fund.

(Duty of Parish Superintendent and Parish School Board, S. 4, A. 45, '04.)

It shall be the duty of the parish superintendent and of the president of the school board of the City of New Orleans to see that this Act be carried out, and that the full amount of the inheritance tax be duly collected, and it shall be the duty of the District Attorney for the various parishes throughout the State, when called upon by the parish superintendent or the president of the school board in the Parish of Orleans to take proceedings to enforce the provisions of this Act.

(Inheritance Tax in Favor of Public Schools, A. 109, '06.)

b. On any legacy or other donation mortis causa to or in favor of any educational, religious or charitable institution.

c. When the property inherited, bequeathed or donated shall have borne its just proportion of taxes prior to the time of such donation, bequest or inheritance.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any heir, legatee or other beneficiary of a donation mortis causa to take or be in possession of any part of the things or property composing the inheritance, legacy or other donation mortis causa, or to dispose of the same or any part thereof, until he shall have obtained the authority of the court to that effect, as hereafter provided; and in case he shall so take or be in possession or shall so dispose of such things or property, or any part thereof, he shall no longer have the right of renouncing such inheritance or donation mortis causa, and shall remain personally liable for the tax thereon; but he may, without waiting for authority do such acts as may seem necessary to preserve the property from waste, damage or loss.

(Duty of Executor.)

Section 4. The executor of the will of a person deceased, or the administrator of his succession, shall, after payment of his debts, proceed against the tax collector and all the heirs and legatees of the deceased summarily, by rule before the court which has jurisdiction of the succession, to fix the amount of tax due by each heir or legatee, and on trial thereof the court shall render judgment for the same against each heir or legatee, with interest and costs, as hereinafter provided.

(Amount of Taxes to Be Deducted by Executor.)

Section 5. The executor or administrator shall thereupon pay to the tax collector the amount of tax, with interest and costs, so fixed, on each inheritance, legacy or donation, out of the funds comprised therein, if sufficient. Should there not be sufficient funds, the court shall, on the application of the heir or legatee, grant an order for the sale of the property composing such inheritance, legacy or donation, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for the purpose of paying such judgment. If the same be not paid by the heir or legatee, or an order of sale be not granted, as above provided within thirty days after the date of the judgment, the court shall, on the application of the executor or administrator, grant an order of sale for the said purpose, as above provided, and the executor or administrator shall pay the said judgment out of the proceeds of the sale.

Such sale shall be made in such manner, and on such terms and conditions as the court shall prescribe, and the expense thereof shall be borne by the heir or legatee.

And no executor or administrator shall be discharged until it is shown that all taxes under this Act, due by the heirs and legatees, have been paid, or until it is judicially determined by the process herein provided that no tax is due.

(Duty of Legal Heir.)

Section 7. In all cases in which an administration is not ordered by the court, the legal or instituted heir, or universal or residuary legatee, shall within six months after the death of the decedent, or, should there be a will, within the same time after the discovery of the same, present to the court a detailed descriptive list, sworn to and subscribed by him, of all items of property contained in and composing the estate of the decedent, and therein shall state the actual cash value of each such item at the time of the death of the decedent, and service thereof shall be made on the tax collector who shall have the right to traverse the same. Should the deceased have made special or particular legacies or donations mortis causa, the legatee shall also be served, and after summarily hearing the parties the court shall fix the amount of tax due as aforesaid by each such heir or legatee, and shall render judgment therefor, with interest and costs, against each of them.

(Amount of Tax to Be Deducted.)

Section 8. In the same manner as provided in Section 5, the heir or universal or residuary legatee shall thereupon pay or take measures for the payment of the tax due on all special or particular legacies or donations.

(Property May Be Sold to Pay Taxes.)

Section 9. The heir or universal residuary legatee may likewise obtain an order for the sale of the property of his inheritance or legacy, or part thereof, for the purpose of paying the tax thereon. But if such tax be not paid, or such order of sale be not made within thirty days after the date of the judgment fixing the amount of the tax, a similar order for the same purpose shall be granted on the application of the tax collector, and thereunder any property forming part of the inheritance or legacy may be sold, and the proceeds thereof shall be applied to the payment of the tax with interest and costs.

(Duty of Heir to See that Tax Is Paid.)

Section 10. The heir or residuary or universal legatee shall not deliver any legacy until the tax thereon shall have been fixed and paid; otherwise he shall be personally liable for the said tax, with interest and costs.

(Search for Will; When Made)

Section 11. If during the six months next following the death of any person leaving property, movable or immovable, within this State, an administration of his succession be not applied for or, his legal or instituted heir or universal or residuary legatee do not apply to the court to be placed in possession thereof, as herein provided, the court shall ex parte and on the application of the tax collector grant an order directing that a search be made for the will of the deceased by a notary public, and in aid of the same may order that all persons having in their possession or control any books, papers or documents of the deceased or any bank-box, safe deposit vault or other receptacle likely or designed to contain the same, shall open such receptacle and exhibit the contents thereof, as well as all other books, papers and documents of the deceased, to the said notary.

(Court May Appoint Executor.)

Section 12. Should the said notary find any document appearing to be the will of the deceased, he shall take possession of the same and produce it in court; and on application of the tax collector, or of any party in interest, the court shall proceed to the probate thereof, as now provided by law. If an executor be therein appointed, the person named shall be notified, and if he do not within ten days after notification accept the appointment, and if within the ten days next following this delay no person entitled to be appointed dative testamentary executor shall apply for the appointment, then the Public Administrator in the Parish of Orleans, and in the other parishes the tax collector, shall be appointed dative testamentary executor of the said decedent, and the administration of his succession shall proceed as herein directed and according to existing law.

Procedure Where No Will Is Found.)

Section 13. If the notary can find no will, he shall report the fact to the court; and thereupon the tax collector shall proceed against the legal heir or heirs of the deceased summarily by rule to fix the amount of tax due by him or them, and each of the heirs shall be ordered, within a delay to be fixed by the court, which may be extended from time to time in the discretion of the court, to make and file a detailed descriptive list, sworn to and subscribed by him, of all the items of property contained in and composing the estate of the decedent, stating therein the actual cash value of each such item at the time of the death of the decedent, and the tax collector shall have a right to traverse the same. On trial of the rule the court shall fix the amount of tax due by each of the heirs, and shall render judgment for the same against each of them, and in such case, as well as in the cases mentioned in Section 12, shall include in the costs payable by the heir or legatee a fee of not more than ten per cent. on the amount of tax due by each heir or legatee in favor of the attorney for the tax collector. In the same manner and under the same conditions as provided in Sections 5 and 9 of this Act, such heirs or legatees shall have the right to procure the sale of their inheritances or legacies for the purpose of paying the tax due thereon, with interest, costs and attorneys fees; and if payment thereof be not made by the heir or legatee, or if an order of sale, as above provided, be not granted, within thirty days after the date of the judgment, the tax collector shall be entitled to a similar order, and thereunder any property forming part of the inheritance or legacy may be sold.

(Any Heir May Institute Proceedings and Receive Fee.)

Section 14. Should there be more than one legal or instituted heir or universal or residuary legatee any one of them may institute the proceedings provided by this Act, and the others shall be made parties thereto and such heir shall be entitled to recover out of the mass of the succession one reasonable attorney's fee, besides his costs.

(Rights of Creditors Preserved.)

Section 15. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect the rights of creditors of persons deceased or the rights of the creditors of the heirs or legatees of such persons, as established by the general law.

(Legacy Indivisible.)

Section 16. Each inheritance or legacy is indivisible, and must be accepted or renounced for the whole; and the heir or legatee shall not be entitled to be placed in possession of the same, and shall be without right or capacity to alienate any part thereof, until the tax on the whole shall have been fixed and paid, or until it shall have been judicially determined, in the manner herein provided, that no part of the same is subject to the tax imposed by this Act.

(Prohibiting Delivery of Effects Before Tax Is Paid.)

Section 17. (As amended and re-enacted by Act No. 301 of 1914.) No bank, banker, trust company, warehouseman or other depository, and no person or corporation or partnership having on deposit or in possession or control any moneys, credits, goods or other things or rights of value for a person deceased, or in which he had an interest, and no corporation the stock or registered bonds of which are owned by a person deceased shall deliver or transfer such moneys, credits, stock, bonds or other things or rights of value to any heir or legatee of such deceased person, unless the tax due thereon under this Act shall have been paid, or unless it be judicially determined in the manner herein prescribed that no tax is due by such heir or legatee. Otherwise the person or corporation so making delivery or transfer shall be liable for the said tax. But the order of a court of competent jurisdiction, directing such delivery or transfer, shall be full authority for the same. Provided, however, that every executor must cause a true and faithful inventory to be taken by a notary public, in the manner prescribed by law, and no moneys, securities, property and effects of the deceased held on deposit as above mentioned shall be delivered to him until said inventory or sworn statement giving detailed statement of the property and its value shall be made and filed in court in the proceedings in which he is acting as executor.

(Burden of Proof.)

Section 18. The burden of proving facts establishing exemption from the tax imposed by this Act is upon the person claiming exemption.

(Jurisdiction)

Section 19. The District Court of the last domicile of the deceased, and in the Parish of Orleans the Civil District Court, shall have original jurisdiction to hear and determine all the proceedings provided by this Act. In the case of a non-resident decedent, the District Court, or Civil District Court, of any parish in which he left property, movable or immovable, shall exercise such jurisdiction, and the court in which such proceedings shall be first begun shall have exclusive original jurisdiction thereof.

(Unknown Heirs.)

Section 20. Non-residents and unknown heirs and legatees, and those whose whereabouts are unknown, shall be represented by curator ad hoc appointed by the court, and all notices, citations and demands prescribed by this Act shall be served on such officers. Though there be in any case more than one unknown or absent heir or legatee, all may be represented by the same curator.

(Commissions of Tax Collectors.)

Section 21. The tax collector spoken of and intended by this Act is the Sheriff and ex-officio Tax Collector of the parish in which was the last residence of the decedent, or in which is situated property of a non-resident decedent, and in the Parish of Orleans the Clerk of the Civil District Court. They shall receive a commission of two per cent on their collections of taxes under this Act.

(Compensation of Attorneys.)

Section 22. In and for the Parish of Orleans the Governor shall appoint by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for a term of four years, an attorney at law, whose duty it shall be to advise, assist and represent the Clerk of the Civil District Court in the enforcement of this Act. For his services, except as provided in Sections 12 and 13, he shall receive a fee of four per cent on all taxes collected hereunder, payable out of the same before transmission to the Treasury. In all other parishes of the State the said duties shall be performed by the attorneys appointed under existing law to assist the tax collectors in the collection of delinquent licenses, and the compensation of such attorney shall be as above provided.

(Method of Fixing Value of Annuity.)

Section 23. In fixing the value of any legacy or donation mortis causa which consists in whole or in part of an annuity or usufruct or right of use or habitation, the court shall consider the expectancy of life of the legatee or donee according to the table known as the American Experience Table of Mortality, at six per cent. per annum compound interest.

(Delinquent Penalty.)

Section 24. Taxes hereby levied shall bear interest at the rate of two per cent per month, beginning six months after the death of the decedent; saving to any heir, legatee, or donee the right to stop the running of interest against him by paying the amount of his tax with accrued interest, or by tendering the same to the tax collector in the manner prescribed by the general law: provided, however, that in cases in which the settlement of the succession is not unduly delayed, or in which the right of any party to receive an inheritance or legacy is contested, and in all cases in which the failure to pay tax on any legacy or inheritance within the period aforesaid is not imputable to the laches of the heir or legatee, the court may, in its discretion, remit such interest.

(Costs to Be Borne by the Succession.)

Section 25. The costs of all the proceedings under this Act shall be borne by the mass of the succession; provided, that in cases in which it seems to him equitable to do so the judge shall have the power to apportion the costs among the several parties, or allow any party to retain his costs out of any sum found to be due by him for tax hereunder. Provided, the provisions of this Act shall affect all successions not finally closed, or in which the final account has not been filed.

If any Assessor fails to comply with the requirements of this Act, the failure shall be cause for removal; besides, he shall be subject to a fine of $250 for the benefit of the public schools in the parish in which the delinquent officer resides, and in which he is the Assessor. In the City of New Orleans the Board of Assessors shall comply with the requirement of this Act, and in the event of failure, shall be subject to dismissal and penalty as before provided. (See Arts. 231 and 252, Constitution of 1898.)

The Sheriffs and Tax Collectors in their respective parishes shall return, by the first Saturday of February, of each and every year, to the School Boards of their respective parishes, a list predicated upon the list mentioned by wards, showing all persons in the parishes, respectively, who have paid their poll tax, as well as persons who have not paid the same, and shall return their reasons in writing and under oath, the cause in each instance of the non-payment of a poll tax, and why they have not collected the tax not collected.

(Penalties, S. 3, A. 89, '88.)

(Report by the Clerk of Court, S. 3, A. 87, '86.)

The clerk of court or other officer, issuing such certificates or warrants, shall report to the tax collector of the parish the names of all persons from whom he has reserved amounts for poll tax, and the tax collector shall give such person credit for such poll tax.

NOTE.—The custom of some tax collectors of claiming and collecting commissions for the retention of polls by the Clerks of Court is without foundation in law, as the tax collector in no sense collects the tax and is entitled to no commission thereon.

(Poll Tax Collections of Orleans, S. 1, A. 56, '94.)

The collections of poll taxes in the Parish of Orleans, together with all the processes, commissions and obligations incident thereto as now provided by law, are vested in the treasurer of the City of New Orleans.

The expenses of the survey shall be paid by the Auditor of Public Accounts out of the proceeds of the sale of the lands on the warrant of the parish treasurer.

The parish treasurer shall forthwith notify the State Superintendent of the results of all sales made by him. The parish treasurer shall be authorized to receive the whole amount bid for the lands, deducting the eight per cent interest which the credits will bear. (See Supreme Court decision as to price, etc.)

(Treasurer's Commission, A. 33, '59.)

Parish treasurers of the several parishes shall be entitled to retain out of the proceeds of the sale of sixteenth sections effected by them a percentage of two and one-half on the amount of said sales, to be deducted from the cash payment, and the same shall be in full compensation of their services.

use of the schools therein, the annual interest payable by the State on funds deposited to their credit, or the annual proceeds of the loans, the parish treasurer shall, on the petition of five legal voters in any such township, order an election to be held in the township, as provided for the sale of township lands; and if a majority of any number of votes above seven be in favor of receiving annually the accruing interest as aforesaid, the same shall be paid to the treasurer of the parish for the use of the township or district; otherwise the interest shall be an accumulating fund to their credit until called for.

DECISIONS OF SUPREME COURT.

(School Boards Not Required to Apportion School Funds.)

The repeal (of Sec. 7, Act 81 of 1888, providing for the apportionment of school funds) is express, because Act 214 of 1902 repeals all laws in conflict; and this provision for apportionment is in conflict with the provisions making it obligatory upon the School Boards to "determine the number of schools to be opened, the location of the schoolhouses, the number of teachers to be employed, and their salaries." The latter provision invests the School Board with absolute discretion in the matter of what number of schools there shall be, and what number of teachers and what their salaries shall be. For the exercise of this discretion, a discretionary control of the school funds is absolutely necessary; because schools cannot be established and maintained without funds. Discretionary control of the one, necessarily carries with it discretionary control of the other. (State ex rel. J. W. Martin et al vs. Webster Parish School Board. May 23, 1910.)

(Discipline.)

Moderate restraint and correction of a pupil by a teacher is not an offense, but is authorized by law, and the authority of the teacher is not limited to the time the pupil is at the school-room or under the actual control of the teacher. (Bolding vs. Texas, 4 S. W., 579.)

“The teacher is loco parentis, and authority is necessarily surrendered to him for proper government of the school.” (Morrow vs. Wood, American Law Register, N. S. X. 3, 692.)

Relative to punishment, the calm and honest judgment of the teacher, as to the requirement, should have great weight in matters of discipline as in the case of a parent under similar circumstances. (American Law Register, Van Vacter vs. State; July number, 1888. Discipline in School.)

It is the duty of a teacher to maintain proper discipline in school, and the extent of his authority in that direction is discussed. (Law Register, N. S. Vol. XIII, p. 716.)

(District Attorneys Not Entitled to 20 Per Cent Commission on Fines.)

Syllabus: Whilst it is well settled that repeals by implication are not favored, it is equally well settled that, in determining whether one law conflicts with another, it is necessary to consider the purposes of both, and if it appears that the purpose of the law last enacted is to cover the whole subject matter dealt with by and to modify or supercede those previously enacted, their modification or supercession results and must be declared.

2. The purpose of Act No. 96 of 1880 was to deal with the whole subject of the duties and compensation of district attorneys, and whilst there may have been some provisions of the then existing law which escaped its operation, it so modified and superceded that law as to preclude any recovery by the district attorneys of the one-fifth part of the fines imposed, after deducting the commission of the sheriff, in addition to the fee provided by Section 3 of said act.

3. Articles 125 and 180 of the Constitution, whether taken separately or together, are not susceptible of the construction that they intend to allow district attorneys to collect commissions, as contradistinguished from fee, or fees, save as provided for by the Constitution itself.

It is therefore ordered, adjudged and decreed, that the judgment of the Court of Appeal which is here made the subject of review be annulled; that the judgment of the District Court which was thereby affirmed, be likewise annulled, avoided and reversed, and that relator's demand be rejected and this proceeding dismissed at his cost. (State ex rel. Edwin Broussard, District Attorney, vs. George Henderson, Sheriff, 120 Ann. 535.)

(Taxes Collected for School Purposes Must Be Turned Over to School Board.)

Taxes collected for school purposes should be turned over to the school board from time to time as received. (Parish Board of School Directors of Iberia Parish vs. Police Jury of Iberia Parish, 123d Ann., 416.)

(Property Exempt from Taxation by Constitution Also Exempt From Special School Tax.)

The special school tax authorized by Constitution Art. 232, is not a special assessment, and property exempt from taxation by the Constitution is not subject to it. (Louisiana & N. W. R. R. Co. vs. State Board of Appraisers, 120th Ann., 471.)

(Members of Partnership Entitled to Vote Upon Firm's Assessment in Special Tax Elections.)

Individual members of a partnership held entitled to vote upon the firm's assessment in a special tax election held under Constitution Art. 232. (Smith vs. Parish Board of School Directors, 125th Ann., 987.)

(Persons Not Entitled to Vote Upon Assessment of Property Sold.)

A person appearing as owner of property on the assessment rolls, but who has sold it when an election was held under Constitution Art. 232, held not entitled to vote thereat. (Smith vs. Parish Board of School Directors, 125th Ann., 987.)

(Special Tax Not Set Aside by Legal Votes Cast Without Proper Evidence.)

A special tax election under Constitution Art. 232, held not to be set aside because the commissioner of election received votes without proper evidence, where such votes were legal. (Smith vs. Parish Board of School Directors, 125th Ann., 987.)

(Right of Widows to Vote Community Property.)

To entitle widows to vote at a special tax election held under Constitution Art. 232, as owners of community property, their rights must clearly appear by judgment or order of court. (Smith vs. Parish Board of School Directors, 125th Ann., 987.)

(School Houses, as Such, Built by Means of Special Tax, Can Not Be Converted Into Theatre.)

Citizens who have voted to tax themselves for a specific work of public improvement, the value of which is fixed at $20,000, have a standing in court to complain that the property acquired is not being used for the purpose contemplated, and this court, in such case, has jurisdiction of the appeal. Where a vote has been taken upon a proposition to impose a tax to build a school-house, and has been favorably acted on, and a building has been constructed with the proceeds of bonds predicated upon such a tax, it would be a breach of faith to allow such building to be converted into a theatre, or to be used for the purpose of giving theatrical performances, as a business, whether in combination with its use for school purposes or otherwise. It is, however, within the discretion of the municipal authorities having control of the property to make such casual and incidental use of it as may not be inconsistent with or prejudicial to, the main purpose for which it was acquired; and changed conditions, in the future, may justify its use for some other purpose. (Sugar vs. City of Monroe, 108th Ann., 677.)
